*Primary GPA for entrance into BSN programs is based on the prerequisite courses, however all programs also look at the student's overall GPA. If you are planning on pursuing the Bachelor of Science in Nursing programs please see a counselor or educational advisor early in your studies. There are important deadlines regarding when prerequisite coursework must be completed. Also, BSN programs require a supplemental application in addition to an application to the university. There are specific deadlines for fall, winter and spring applications. The CSU open filing period for fall is Oct. 1 - Nov. 30, June 1-30 for winter, and Aug. 1 - 31 for spring. CSUF and CSULA accept applications for their nursing programs only during the fall term. Nursing students must submit their application to the university during the open filing period. The supplemental applications have varying deadlines. They are as follows: CSUF: November 30 CSULA: November 30 CSULB: February 15 for the fall semester, September 15 for the spring semester CSUSB: March 1 for the fall quarter, October 1 for the winter quarter The CSU nursing programs also require the Test of Essential Academic Skills (TEAS). The deadlines for completion of this test also vary. It is highly recommended that nursing students attend an information session offered by the university.
